IN MEMORIAM

Roy Lee Still, a member of the Senior Class, was accidentally killed on Saturday, November 15, 1969. The students of Riverside High School have lost a friend and the graduating Class of '70 has lost a beloved Classmate.

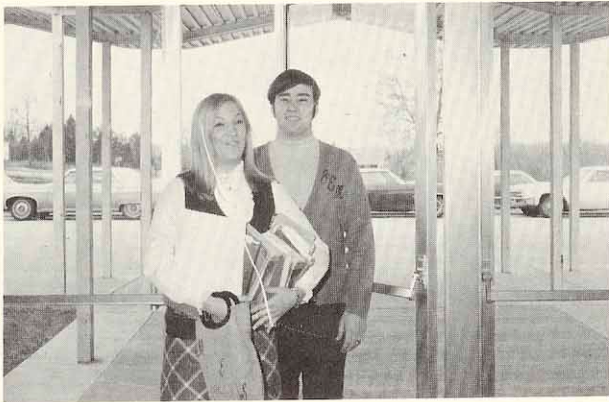

Roy Lee Still

Here's a few of our mature Seniors, who are ready to go out into the world!

We have here another one of Miss Ruth's "Wild Parties".

Liz thinks Jimmy is such a gentleman. He always opens the door for her!

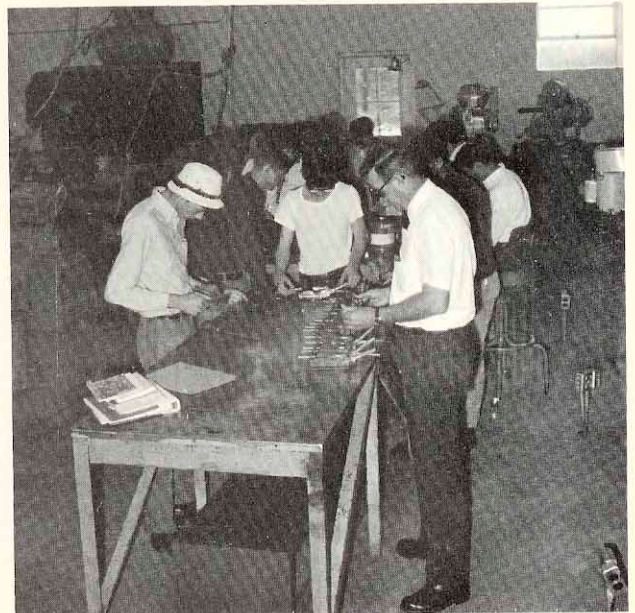

Linda loves this class! She's always the center of attention.

Sneaking out of class is a favorite pastime among many of the students.

The machine shop gang is at it again.

Out-of-Sight Seniors

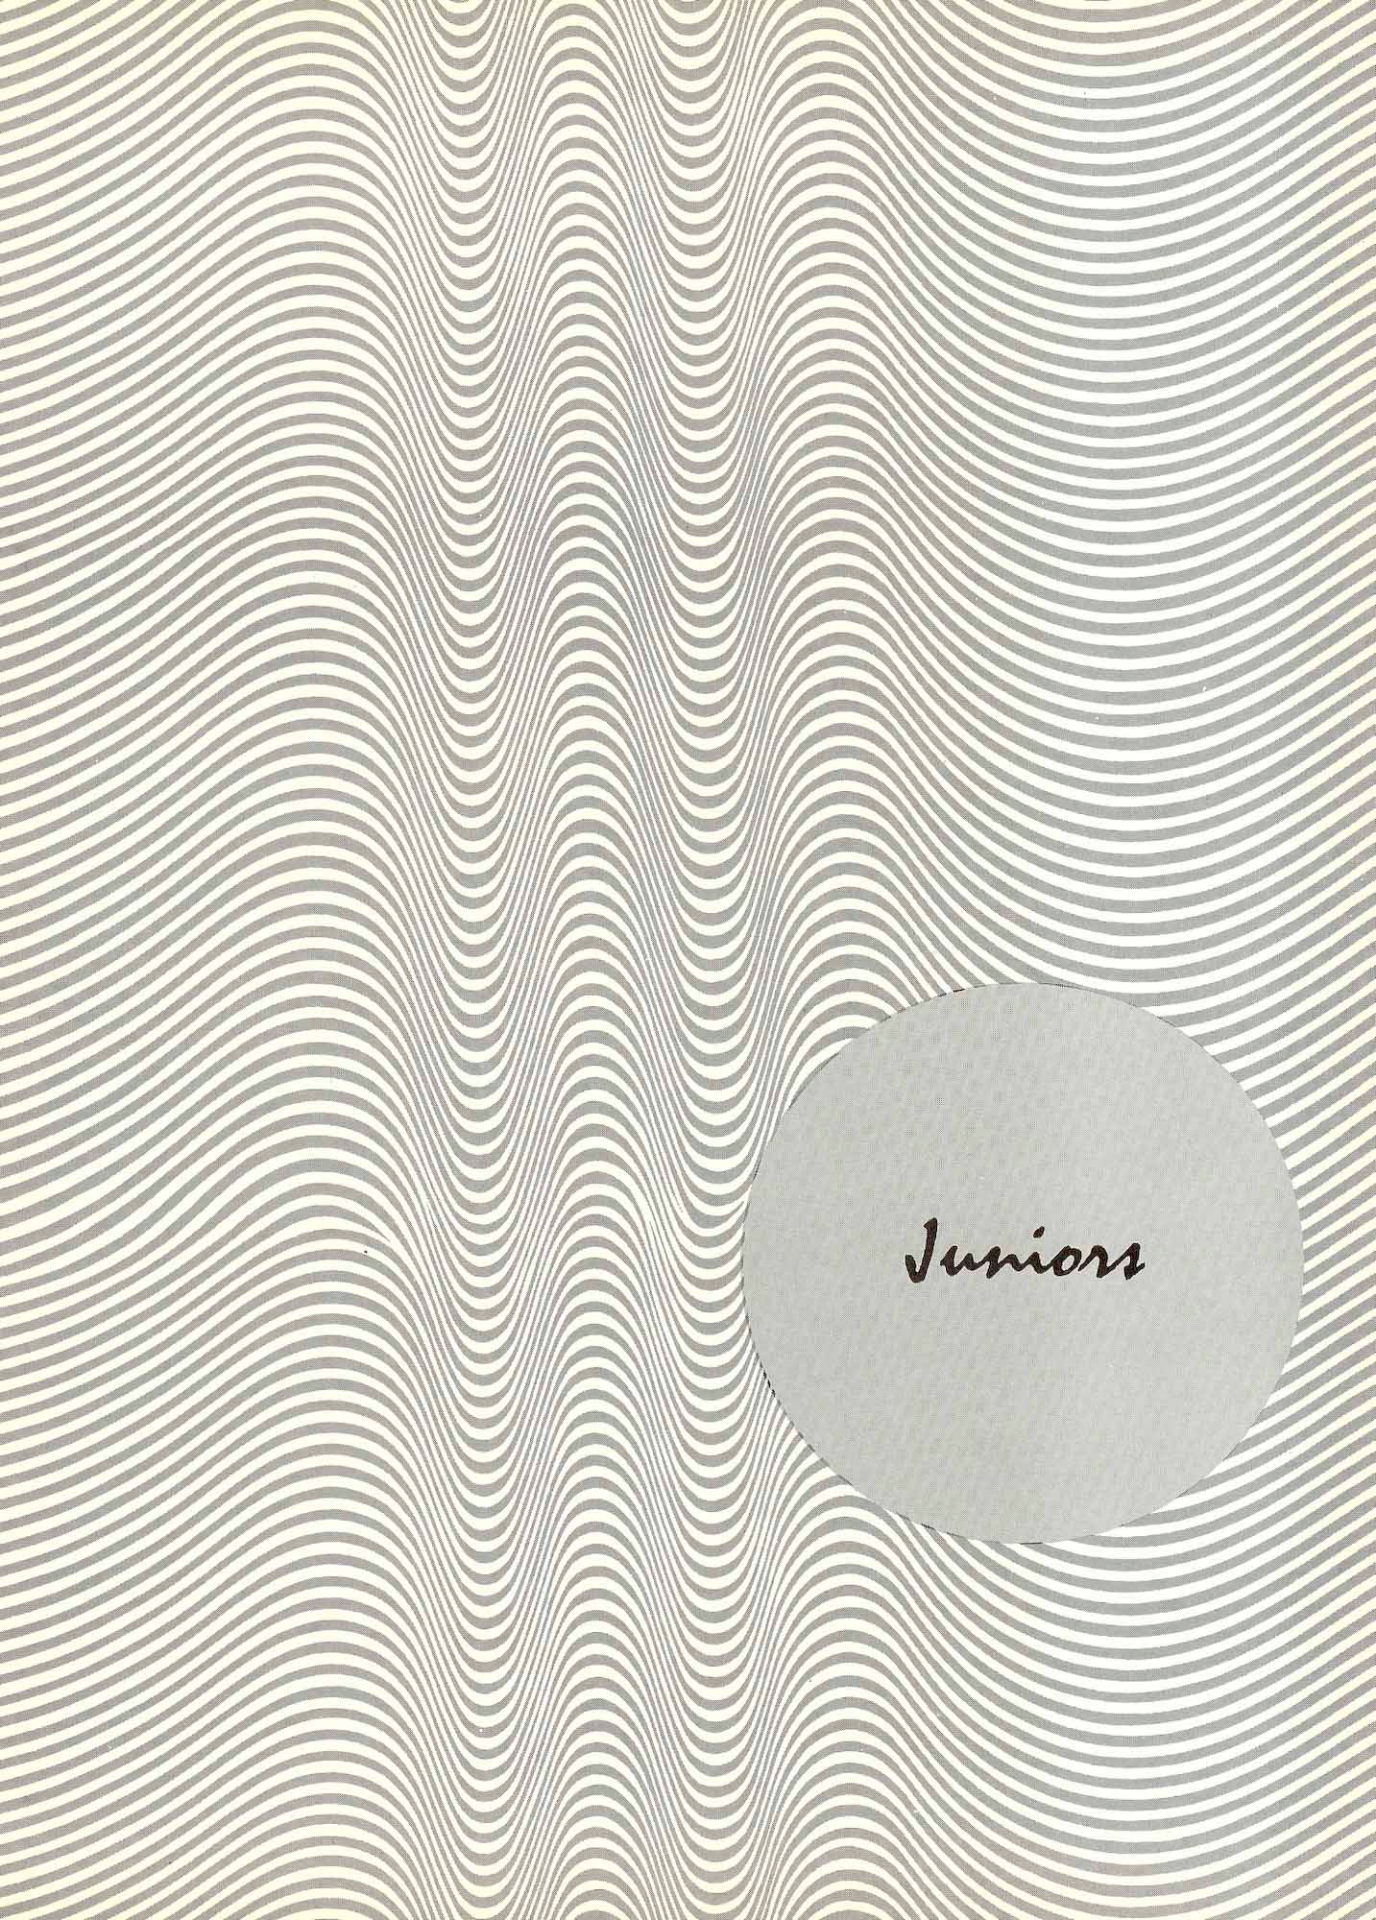

Sheila Kindle and Ronnie Vise were elected by the Journalism Class to represent our "Out-Of-Sight" Senior Class.

"Now that wasn't funny, Jim!!!!"

This is a few of the serious minded, hard working Journalism Class students doing their daily "thing".

Juvenile Juniors Tim Baker and Rugena Tolley decided to see what it was like inside the Decaturville jail and didn't like it!

There's no danger of the school being blown up with these "capable" junior scientists around. Or is there?

These Riverside girls have just returned from their weekly beauty appointments.

Fruity Freshmen

It looks like Mrs. Johnson's Algebra class is paying attention for a change.

History was made this year at Riverside by holding our first Basketball Homecoming. We hope to make this an annual event in the future. Elections were held by the girls and boys basketball teams. Each class elected a boy and girl attendant and the whole team elected the King and Queen. This was a different and special event at our school and we look forward to it next year.

Here our photographer catches a far away glance at our first Basketball Homecoming.

MOMENTS TO REMEMBER

At Riverside we had our joys
A happy group of girls and boys
We'll have these moments to remember

The quiet walks, the noisy fun.
The football games we almost won.
We'll have these moments to remember

Though summer turns to winter,
And the present disappears.
The laughter we were glad to share
Will echo through the years.

When other nights and other days
May find us gone our separate ways
We'll have these moments to remember.
